New Destination Signs for the Pit River Tribe

REDDING – The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) in coordination with the Pit River Tribe of California has installed destination signs on two local highways. Signs were unveiled on US 395 for the XL Ranch reservation in Modoc County and on State Route 299 for the Montgomery Creek and 79 Acre Rancherias in Shasta County. Representatives from Caltrans and the Madesi Band of the Pit River Tribe were present at the unveiling.

Destination signing is available on state facilities for all Federally Recognized California Tribes. For more information on this signing program, please contact Sandra Rivera, Native American Liaison with Caltrans at 229-0516.
